

ROBYN GORDON

ELEVEN YEAR OLD ROBYN GORDON WINS Miss Junior UNITE Pageant and More!

At eleven years Robyn Gordon she already has a great deal of vested qualities and experience under her belt. She uses her life to serve God. With her pure spirit and beautiful voice and even has a chart topping CD to prove it. "Amazing by Robyn Gordon."

She and her Producer, Grammy Award Winning Tre' Corley finished her latest project: "He is B4 Me". The song is upbeat, easy listening with a message which can be applied to anyone's situation, success and status in life.

The "He is B4 Me" video harnesses Robyn's determination, playful energy and beautiful smile. It productively draws viewers in and once they've enjoyed it through to the end, it will leave them wondering whether they've been on the set of a Walt Disney Movie or Nickelodeon! "This is already being said and yet, the reviews are still coming in from everywhere." Robyn Gordon
Facebook:<https://www.facebook.com/singerrobyngordon>

Who is this "candid, talented cutie pie?" Miss Robyn Gordon is from Clarksville, TN, but has traveled across the nation for various engagements and ministry. However her cornucopia of talent and community input doesn't stop there by any means. She currently serves as the 2015 Miss Tennessee Preteen and recently competed in Orlando, FL for the National Title of USA National Preteen under the directorship of Jackie Watson.

While holding the titles of "Miss. Tennessee Pre-Teen" she entered and gracefully won the title of "Miss Junior UNITE 2016," under her Director Tiffany Love of Nashville, TN. Robyn has great grades in school, she writes for a magazine and sometimes co-hosts a radio show program; as well as serves as a member of her school's Honor Choir. Singing is her passion and she has been singing since the age of 4. An avid writer, Robyn is currently writing her first children's book about bullying to be released within the year with impacting children's conference in the works.

Her impacting realm of talents include; making her stage debut in the hit play "Not Over My Dead Body", directed by her Mother, Treva Gordon and Lavon Bracey. She also was cast in her first paying commercial gig in 2014.

Anything else? This amazing eleven year old is scheduled to facilitate an Anti-Bullying Conference with Tiffany Love: "Man-Up Against Bullying." Mrs. Love is the Founder/CEO of "Once In A Lifetime" which produces "Man Up Against Bullying and the noted "Ms. UNITE Pageant."

Youth Advocate and Community Leader, Miss Gordon received; an invite to walk the Red Carpet Step & Repeat and National Youth Activist Awards Show, featured in the Tennessee Tribune, The Leaf Chronicle, Trinity Gal Blog, a guest on the Treva and Kevin TV Show. Various radio programs as well as interviews on the Red Carpet at the "50 Magnificent Men" book signing, all star networking event, which was taped LIVE. She recently conducted a radio show interview with Xuam Lawson, the Program Director for WFSK 88.1FM Fisk University who said to Robyn's mother, "Great interview she did great! You and your husband raised her extremely well!"

Robyn also has a "key part" in the award winning (Novel turned) Stage Play "From Crack to Christ." The play is an adaption of the titled book: "From Crack to Christ", Authored by the multi talented Tanya Davis. It opens Thanksgiving weekend in Nashville, TN. Plans are in the works to take the production nationwide.

As with any little girl Robyn is full of terrific ideas and a great energy, but remains humble and always says "thank you" to those helping her along the way. This includes daily, weekly and even seasonal, timed assistance that she receives from her supportive team. "It takes a village right?" Robyn believes in the power of prayer, loves God, her family and is always a delight to be around and to spend time with. She wears the crown of life and her "Miss Junior UNITE" Crown well; with impeccable manners and grace.

For Media Interviews or to schedule her for professional or community oriented appearances.

Contact: Gordon Enterprises. (931) 980-4661 (615) 618-4453.

Treva R. Gordon Phil 4:13

Can Do All Things Through Christ Who Strengthens Me"

By Deborah A. Culp

